ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) today announced that its Global Fulfillment Center, operated with a third-party logistics partner in Mt. Juliet, TN was impacted by the tornados in the greater Nashville area on March 3, 2020. The facility has sustained significant damage. The full extent of damage is currently being assessed.

Our first priority is ensuring the safety of our employees. To that end, we have confirmed that there are no reported injuries to NCR's on-site employees. To address continuity of our customers' business needs, NCR and its third-party logistics partner have initiated our respective business continuity plans.

Although we maintain substantial property damage and business interruption insurance coverage for the Nashville Global Fulfillment Center, we cannot assure you that such coverage will be adequate.

Our thoughts are with the entire Nashville community.
