December 1, 2008 at 8:16 AM EST

DAYTON, Ohio, Dec 01, 2008 (BUSINESS WIRE) -- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) announced today that John G. Bruno has joined the company as executive vice president, Industry Solutions Group, reporting to Bill Nuti, chairman and chief executive officer. In this new position, Bruno leads NCR's industry-focused business strategy, responsible for solutions development, engineering, product management and marketing in each of NCR's targeted industries: financial services, retail and hospitality, travel and lodging, entertainment, healthcare and public sector, and telecommunications and technology.

Bruno, 43, brings a strong track record of success in line management and the execution of complex initiatives at Goldman Sachs, Merrill Lynch, Symbol Technologies and Cisco Systems. Most recently, Bruno was a managing director with Goldman Sachs, accountable for strategic planning and major capital investment management associated with global infrastructure expansion, structural reform, and select technology strategy and engineering. Previously, he was a managing director with Merrill Lynch, responsible for technology architecture and engineering. At Symbol, Bruno was senior vice president of Corporate Strategy, Marketing and Business Development, as well as general manager of the emerging markets RFID Division. Bruno held positions of increasing responsibility at Cisco Systems, including vice president of Technology Marketing and vice president of Information Technology.

"I have known and worked with John for many years and know he will be an outstanding addition to our leadership team," Nuti said. "In this new role, he will help further our focus on the vertical industries we serve and lead the integration of our engineering, product management and marketing functions into a more seamless, customer-focused solutions development team. John will also bring greater collaboration and focus to how we create growth opportunities, design and engineer high-quality, cost-effective products, and differentiate these solutions for our customers across industries and geographic regions. As a result, we will make it faster and easier than ever for customers to transform their businesses."

"I am impressed with the talented team Bill has assembled and the strength of NCR's strategy, global position, technology and business model, which have consistently generated top- and bottom-line growth this year," Bruno said. "NCR has strong product and service offerings and deep relationships with many of the world's leading companies. I look forward to helping advance the company's focus on vertical industry solution development and working with NCR's customers, building on the outstanding progress Bill and his team have made to date."
