First retailer in Malaysia to make customers live easier with a faster and convenient checkout experience

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jun. 22, 2015-- NCR Corporation \(NYSE:NCR\), the global leader in consumer transaction technologies, today announced that Tesco Stores \(Malaysia\) Sdn Bhd ("Tesco Malaysia") has selected NCR self-checkout technology to bring a faster and more convenient checkout option for its customers in Malaysia. Customers will now have the freedom to scan, bag and pay for goods themselves, without having to wait in long queues.

The Tesco store at IOI City Mall in Putrajaya is the first site of the pilot deployment, which will be followed by Tesco KSL City in Johor. The NCR self-checkout solution provides user-friendly interface and touchscreen that intelligently guides shoppers through the checkout process with animated demonstrations for simpler and faster transactions. NCR will provide consulting, training and services to ensure smooth deployment.

"We are delighted to work with Tesco to extend the benefits of self-checkout to another new market in Asia," said Michael Cawley, vice president of Asia Pacific, NCR Retail. "By leveraging our solid global deployment experiences, we are helping retailers not only to improve their customer services and differentiate their in-store experiences, but also improve their operating costs."

Tesco first started using NCR SelfServ checkout in the U.K. in 2002. The technology is now available at Tesco stores in Ireland, the U.S., Central and Eastern Europe, South Korea and Thailand. NCR's own research shows that self-checkout solutions can reduce wait times by as much as 40 percent while nearly two thirds of shoppers say stores that offer the option of self-checkout provide better customer services.

NCR leads the world in self-checkout \(SCO\) technology, shipping more units in 2014 than all other vendors combined for the 5th consecutive year according to strategic research and consulting firm RBR. RBR expects ePOS and SCO shipments to grow through 2020.
