DULUTH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 7, 2016-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR), the global leader in consumer transaction technologies, is excited to partner with hometown customer, Atlanta Falcons, and future neighbor, Georgia Tech, to bring curb appeal and make improvements to the Salvation Army Bellwood Boys & Girls Club near Mercedes-Benz Stadium, future home of the Atlanta Falcons and Atlanta United.

Atlanta Falcons players Ricardo Allen and Paul Worilow, Freddie the Falcon, cheerleaders and staff will work with more than 100 NCR employees and Georgia Tech students on Friday, April 8, 2016 to beautify a garden and paint inside. Additionally, the volunteers will host a football clinic and play games with the children. Nutritionists from the nearby Atlanta Community Food Bank will host a nutrition class, instructing the children how to make healthy snacks.

"We are so grateful for the opportunity to partner with NCR and the Falcons in this beautification project of The Salvation Army Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Atlanta - Bellwood Club," says Leisa Smith, executive director, Salvation Army, Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Atlanta. "The time and dedication given means a lot to the community and even more to the children."

"Giving back to the communities where we live and work has always been in our DNA," added NCR Executive Sponsor Marija Zivanovic-Smith, vice president, corporate marketing & public affairs, and chief of staff, office of the chairman and CEO. "Our entire team takes pride in NCR's rich 132-year history of community service and iNCRedible employee culture. That's why we're so excited to partner with Bellwood Boys & Girls Club alongside Georgia Tech to make a lasting impact on Atlanta's Westside."
