

NCR Remains #1 Provider of Multivendor ATM Software in 2018 RBR Industry Report

April 19, 2018 at 8:00 AM EDT

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 19, 2018-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR), a global leader in omni-channel solutions, today announced that it has again been named the world's largest supplier of multivendor ATM middleware and applications according to a new report by strategic research and consulting firm RBR.

RBR's "ATM Software 2018" report shows that more than 1.3 million ATMs globally run multivendor software, an increase of approximately 14 percent since the last report in 2016. NCR ATM software accounts for 32 percent of the global multivendor software market, 12 percentage points more than any other ATM software provider. NCR led as the #1 provider of multivendor ATM software in RBR's past five reports (2007, 2009, 2012, 2015 and 2017).

"As we see financial institutions taking on more truly omni-channel projects involving linking ATMs to mobile banking and CRM systems, we're pleased that NCR's software-focused strategy continues to resonate in the market," said Frank Gauld, VP & GM, NCR Financial Services. "Financial institutions' technical and business requirements are changing rapidly in this new era of consumer expectations, and we're excited to continue leveraging our leadership position to better serve our global customer base."

NCR was also ranked the #1 provider of global point-of-sale (POS) software for the retail and hospitality industries by RBR in its 2016 Global POS Software report.
