NCR Acquires Reseller BEC to Expand Hospitality Business

February 22, 2019

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 22, 2019-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) today announced it has acquired BEC, Colorado's leading provider of Hospitality Point-of-Sale (POS) Technology based in Denver. The acquisition complements NCR's existing presence and expands coverage within the Western US.

BEC was an NCR reseller for 23 years. NCR will now directly manage more than 2600 sites through this acquisition, including large customers Qdoba, Snooze Eatery and Punch Bowl Social. All former BEC employees have accepted positions in NCR.

"We're enhancing our ability to take care of our customers each and every day and expanding our overall Hospitality portfolio. This expansion builds on our proven strategy for NCR Hospitality and our commitment to the small-medium business segment, furthering our ability to provide value added payments solutions," said NCR President and Chief Executive Officer, Michael D. Hayford.

This acquisition, combined with significant incremental investment in Aloha R&D and NCR's continuing commitment to its channel partners, builds on a proven strategy for NCR Hospitality and its commitment to the small-medium business segment.

BEC is now a part of 14 NCR Local Offices. Local Offices provide NCR Hospitality the perfect balance of a local presence close to their customers.

"BEC has always focused on taking great care of our customers, delivering innovative solutions, and expanding our market reach," said Audrey Borski, President, BEC. "We have found an amazing team at NCR that complements our values and have confidence in NCR's long-term strategy and market opportunities."
