Slated for the Knickerbocker Hotel in Chicago Oct. 24-26, 2000, the conference will address topics surrounding counterfeiting, ATM security, encryption standards and new counter-measure technologies.

Experts in the ATM fraud area will be on hand at the conference, with financial institution executives and ATM network managers among the attendees.

"Crime involving ATMs is a concern for the entire industry," said Andy Orent, vice president of NCR's Financial Solutions Division.
