

NCR Appoints Darryl Parker as Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer of the Retail and Financial Group

January 14, 2002 at 11:32 AM EST

DAYTON, Ohio, Jan 14, 2002 /PRNewswire via COMTEX/ -- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) today announced that Darryl Parker has been named vice president of sales operations and chief marketing officer of the company's Retail and Financial Group.

Parker, whose appointment is effective in early February, will oversee the group's new TeleWeb Center initiative that will allow customers worldwide to purchase NCR products and services through enhanced Internet and telephone channels. He also will be responsible for customer satisfaction measurement and group-level communications, and will be actively engaged in cross-business unit public relations and marketing projects.

Parker will be based in Dayton, Ohio and report to Howard Lance, president of NCR and chief operating officer of the Retail and Financial Group.

Parker comes to NCR from Sun Microsystems where he was senior director of application market development after holding positions of increasing responsibility for Sun Middle Europe and sales development for Asia/Pacific.

Prior to joining Sun in 1988, he spent eight years with IBM in engineering, sales and marketing.

"Darryl brings a wealth of global marketing and sales support experience to his new role," said Lance, "ensuring NCR continues to be considered a leader in the retail and financial industries."

Parker is a graduate of Howard University with a bachelor's degree in electrical engineering.
