NCR's financial services and retail solutions recognized for excellence in product design

DULUTH, Ga.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jan. 5, 2018-- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR), a global leader in omni-channel solutions, today announced that it has won four 2017 GOOD DESIGN™ Awards. Founded in Chicago in 1950, the awards program is one of the oldest and most prestigious for design excellence worldwide.

NCR's SelfServ 80 Series, an award-winning family of ATM solutions launched in 2017 designed to re-invent the banking experience for consumers and financial institutions, and NCR's FastLane SelfServ™ retail technology providing consumers with convenient checkout options, were recognized for their excellence in product design and innovation category. NCR will showcase the award-winning self-checkout technology at NRF 2018 Retail's Big Show at booth #3121 from Jan 14 to 16, 2018.

"NCR has consistently invested in innovations to deliver built for purpose smart edge devices that, in conjunction with our software and services, deliver exceptional customer experiences, and these awards are another recognition of this," said Bob Ciminera, NCR's executive vice president, Hardware Product Operations. "We are committed to continuing to develop products and solutions that set the standards in connected financial and retail technology that will enable new levels of productivity gains for our customers."

NCR won a total of four awards for the following designs. Each category and description of the award can be read here:

- NCR 80 Series Demo
- NCR SelfServ 84 Walk-up - Exterior Through the Wall Multi-Function ATM
- NCR SelfServ 88 - Freestanding Drive-Up Island Multi-Function ATM
