Holds 22% global market share in 2024, nearly doubling the next closest competitor

ATLANTA--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Jul. 29, 2025-- NCR Voyix, a leading global provider of digital commerce solutions, has once again been named the world's leading supplier of self-checkout (SCO) technology, according to the newly released Global EPOS and Self-Checkout 2025 report by Datos Insights.

The report highlights NCR Voyix's continued leadership in the global SCO market, with a published 22% share of total shipments in 2024—nearly double that of the next closest vendor. The company's performance contributed to 2024 being the second-highest year ever for global SCO shipments. NCR Voyix reinforced its position as the preferred partner for retailers navigating labor challenges, evolving consumer expectations and the growing demand for frictionless checkout experiences.

"NCR Voyix is proud to be recognized once again for its excellence in self-checkout," said Darren Wilson, EVP & President, Retail at NCR Voyix. "Our continued investment in innovation and customer success is helping retailers around the world deliver faster, smarter and more secure checkout experiences."

The Datos Insights report also highlights NCR Voyix's position across key global regions, with a 54% share of the North American market. The report also identifies the Company as the top SCO supplier in multiple regions, including LATAM.

As retailers continue to modernize their front-end operations, NCR Voyix remains at the forefront of delivering scalable, AI-powered self-checkout solutions that enhance operational efficiency and elevate the customer experience.
