

NCR Selects GE Capital Vendor Financial Services as Preferred Provider for Leasing Programs

April 4, 2001 at 7:02 AM EDT

DAYTON, Ohio, April 4 /PRNewswire/ -- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) has entered into a seven-year agreement with GE Capital Vendor Financial Services, a world leader in providing financing solutions, as the preferred provider of leasing services for NCR customers in the United States.

GE Capital Vendor Financial Services will provide comprehensive, flexible financing solutions to U.S.-based NCR customers acquiring NCR hardware, software or solutions, including Teradata warehousing and customer relationship management (CRM) solutions, ATMs/Self-Service TouchPoints(TM), payment solutions, retail store automation, professional services and maintenance contracts. GE Capital Vendor Financial Services will also support NCR through a dedicated nationwide sales force and a back-office team to partner with NCR sales associates in its Teradata, financial and retail divisions.

"The assurance of flexible lease financing across all NCR solutions further solidifies our offerings and will be a key driver to our future growth rate," said David Bearman, NCR senior vice president and chief financial officer. "The strength of NCR solutions and GE Capital Vendor Financial Services financing will be a powerful combination in the marketplace."

"We are dedicated to helping companies like NCR generate more revenue through tailored financing programs that add value to both them and their customers," said Bill Cary, president and CEO of GE Capital Vendor Financial Services. "Through superior customer service and a commitment to Six Sigma quality, we will grow this relationship globally to better serve NCR and their global customers."
