

NCR Joins Cisco Internet Mobile Office Initiative to Deliver Broadband Internet Access to Mobile Business Professionals

June 26, 2001 at 9:50 AM EDT

DAYTON, Ohio, Jun 26, 2001 /PRNewswire/ -- NCR Corporation's (NYSE: NCR) Worldwide Customer Services Division has joined the Cisco Internet Mobile Office initiative through an agreement with Cisco Systems, Inc. (Nasdaq: CSCO), the worldwide leader in networking for the Internet.

The Cisco Internet Mobile Office initiative promotes the adoption of high-speed broadband access in hotels, airports, convention centers and other public places. As a solution integrator, NCR will help Cisco build and support a comprehensive networked infrastructure, providing a range of services for secure, standards-based virtual private network access for the mobile business traveler.

NCR and Cisco will provide wired and wireless Global Broadband Roaming solutions to business travelers enabling them to have secure remote broadband access to their corporate networks. NCR's consultants and engineers will deploy and support a range of Cisco hardware and software including wireless and long-range Ethernet equipment and the Building Broadband Service Manager platform.

"The Cisco partnership uniquely positions NCR to provide businesses with emerging technologies that help power the global economy -- and is now expanded to support the mobile business professional," said Roland True, strategic marketing vice president of NCR Worldwide Customer Services.
