

NCR ATMs To Be Installed at Leading Spanish Travel Agency

September 18, 2001 at 10:35 AM EDT

MADRID, Spain, Sept. 18 /PRNewswire/ -- NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR), the world's leading supplier of ATMs, and Caja Duero, one of Spain's main savings banks, have signed a deal to install and maintain 150 NCR ATMs in convenience locations across Spain, including the installation of 70 Personas 86 machines at Halcon Viajes, one of Spain's leading travel agencies.

"In Spain, the number of convenience ATMs has almost doubled in the last seven years with retail locations being a very popular destination with several financial institutions," said Jeff Lutz, vice president of NCR's Financial Solutions division for Europe, the Middle East and Africa. "This trend is likely to continue as financial institutions like Caja Duero see the business and consumer benefits of having ATMs placed away from bank branches and located where consumers need cash."

The ATMs will be located at Halcon Viajes main outlets across Spain where there is a high throughput of customers.

About Halcon Viajes

Halcon Viajes is one of Spain's leading travel agencies, with hundreds of branches across the country. The group that owns Halcon Viajes is also the proprietor of Air Europa, the first private airline company to fly scheduled domestic flights in Spain.

About Caja Duero
