Forward-Looking Statements

This current report on Form 8-K contains statements that are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, pursuant to the safe harbor provisions of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 (the “Act”), including statements containing the words “plans,” “will,” “anticipates,” “expects,” and “intends,” or similar expressions, as well as other words or expressions referencing future events, conditions or circumstances. We intend these forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in the Act. Statements that describe or relate to NCR’s plans, goals, intentions, strategies, or financial outlook, and statements that do not relate to historical or current fact, are examples of forward-looking statements. Examples of forward-looking statements in this report include, without limitation, statements regarding business continuity plans to address continuity of our customers’ business needs and the adequacy of property damage and business interruption insurance coverage. These forward-looking statements are based on our current expectations and involve substantial risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those expressed or implied by the forward-looking statements, and therefore, we cannot assure you that our plans, intentions, expectations or strategies will be attained or achieved. Such risks and uncertainties include, without limitation, the sufficiency and effectiveness of the Company’s or its third-party logistics partner’s business continuity plans, the adequacy of the Company’s property damage and business interruption insurance coverage and the Company’s ability to recover under the applicable policies, and the other factors and financial, operational and legal risks or uncertainties described in the Company’s filings with the SEC, including the Company’s most recent annual report on Form 10-K, quarterly reports on Form 10-Q and current reports on Form 8-K. Any forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date on which it is made. NCR does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Our Thoughts Are With the Nashville Community

ATLANTA – NCR Corporation (NYSE: NCR) today announced that its Global Fulfillment Center, operated with a third-party logistics partner in Mt. Juliet, TN was impacted by the tornados in the greater Nashville area on March 3, 2020. The facility has sustained significant damage. The full extent of damage is currently being assessed.

Our first priority is ensuring the safety of our employees. To that end, we have confirmed that there are no reported injuries to NCR’s on-site employees. To address continuity of our customers’ business needs, NCR and its third-party logistics partner have initiated our respective business continuity plans.

Although we maintain substantial property damage and business interruption insurance coverage for the Nashville Global Fulfillment Center, we cannot assure you that such coverage will be adequate.

Our thoughts are with the entire Nashville community.
